
Account Creation Consent Form

The U.S. Federal Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA) requires website operators to obtain parent/guardian consent before collecting personal information from children under 13 years of age.

To create an online account for SAT® registration, College Board needs the following information, including your signature. All the information is required to create the account. Your child will use one online account for all College Board programs, including SAT, AP®, PSAT/NMSQT®, CLEP®, and BigFuture® activities.

Once the form is complete and signed, email it to accountrequest@collegeboard.org.

Account Creation

A College Board representative will contact you with next steps for establishing your student's account.

Once the account is created, your child not only will have access to register for the SAT, but will also have access to other offerings available on the College Board website. In some of these other offerings, additional personal information may be collected about your child. Some of the additional information may include race, ethnicity, and best language. While some of these questions will require an answer, there is an option to select "Prefer not to answer." If you do not want your child to provide any additional personal information, please instruct your child to mark "Prefer not to answer." And at any time, please be advised that you have the right to request that that College Board delete your child's account at any time after it has been created.

Parent/Guardian Consent

By submitting the above personally identifying information about my child and signing this form, I give College Board permission to create and access an online account for my child.

Parent/guardian name: _____

Parent/guardian daytime contact number (required to complete account creation): _____

Parent/guardian email address: _____

Parent/guardian signature (print this document and sign here): _____

Please allow up to five business days after College Board has received this form for account creation. If any information is missing or incomplete, College Board will reach out for clarification or missing information.
