Help Students Build a SAT Suite Practice Plan

Students do not need to do everything at once. The most effective practice plan is realistic, focused, and consistent.

A common practice journey:

1

Start with a Bluebook Practice Test

Take a full-length practice test to establish a baseline.

2

Understand Results in My Practice

Review scores and identify 1–2 focus areas for improvement.

3

Practice Targeted Skills

Use tailored practice questions in My Practice, the Student Question Bank, and/or Official SAT Prep on Khan Academy® to focus on priority skills.

4

Keep Going with a Consistent Routine

Encourage students to stay engaged through regular practice with Question of the Day, Official SAT Tutoring on Schoolhouse.world.

5

Check Progress with Another Practice Test

Take another practice test and adjust the plan as needed.

SAT Suite Practice Resources

Use this guide to learn what each resource offers, how it supports students, and how to access it.

Bluebook Practice Tests

What it is: Full-length digital practice tests in Bluebook™, designed to reflect the test day experience for the SAT and PSAT assessments.

How it helps: Students gain familiarity with the test format, timing, tools, and adaptive structure, build stamina and confidence, and receive an actual test score.

How to access: Students download Bluebook and follow the sign-in instructions provided by their school or College Board. Students testing through SAT School Day may use credentials provided by their school. bluebook.collegeboard.org/students

My Practice

What it is: An online practice hub that turns practice test results into a plan including personalized practice recommendations and tailored questions.

How it helps: Students can review practice test scores, question details, answer explanations, and performance by content domain. Practice results help students determine what to focus on next.

How to access: Students sign in to My Practice with the same credentials used for Bluebook or follow the access instructions provided by their school. mypractice.collegeboard.org/login

Student Question Bank

What it is: A collection of thousands of official SAT Suite practice questions.

How it helps: Students can filter by test, section, domain, skill, and difficulty level, so they can focus on the areas where they need the most practice.

How to access: Visit the Student Question Bank from the SAT Suite practice site or through links from My Practice. mypractice.collegeboard.org/questionbank/search

Official SAT Prep on Khan Academy

What it is: A comprehensive digital prep resource including SAT skill-building lessons, videos, examples, diagnostics, and quizzes.

How it helps: Students build the knowledge and skills tested on the SAT through targeted instruction and practice.

How to access: Students visit the Khan Academy Official SAT Prep website or access Khan Academy review from My Practice. khanacademy.org/test-prep/digital-sat

Question of the Day

What it is: A quick, gamified daily practice experience with official SAT Suite questions.

How it helps: Students can build a steady practice habit, keep skills sharp, earn badges, and stay engaged in just a few minutes a day.

How to access: Visit Question of the Day from the SAT Suite practice page. qotd.collegeboard.org

Official SAT Tutoring on Schoolhouse.world

What it is: Live, virtual SAT tutoring through small-group sessions led by trained peer tutors.

How it helps: Students can get structure, accountability, live support, and help with SAT skills shown in their practice results.

How to access: Visit Schoolhouse.world through the SAT Suite practice page or links in My Practice. schoolhouse.world/sat-bootcamp

Resources for Educators

Support student learning with flexible, classroom-ready SAT Suite questions.

SAT Suite Educator Question Bank

What it is: An educator-facing question bank with state standards alignment and tools to build and assign custom practice sets.

How it helps: Educators can find questions by assessment, section, domain, skill, and difficulty level to support targeted practice and instruction.

How to access: Access the SAT Suite Educator Question Bank here: satsuiteeducatorquestionbank.collegeboard.org

Support students with the right resources at the right time.

Students can use SAT Suite practice resources independently, and educators can use official tools like the SAT Suite Educator Question Bank to guide targeted practice and classroom support.
